

Questions which may be helpful for the directee after the initial conversation

Are there aspects of the spiritual direction process that remain unclear?

What were my hopes & desires in seeking spiritual direction?

What was my overall sense of the conversation at the time?

Reflecting back now, has anything changed or been added to this sense?

Do I feel able, over time, to be honest and open with this spiritual director?